

How It Works...

1. Self Balancing Air System applies even pressure to hold the mold in place.
2. The molten material is poured into the Spincaster funnel.
3. Centrifugal force sends the molten alloy into even the most intricate mold patterns.
4. The machine will stop after reaching a set time. In just seconds, your parts are finished!

